Author: Queen Sara

*This is a copy of a parchment found at the foot of a ruined statue in PaxOku which moments before had contained the 'light' of PaxOku. The original bore the signiture of Queen Sara, herself.
Sarberius of PaxOku apprehended the original document, but not before this copy was made. She refused to turn the original document in to the Paxlair government or the Paladins, not knowing of the existence of the copy. She suspiciously kept the original with the intent to destroy or use it, we believe.
